Welcome to Christ Church! We are delighted that you are worshipping with us. All baptized persons of every denomination are welcome to receive communion at our altar. Please introduce yourself to one of our greeters. You are invited to put on a nametag as you come into church. You are also welcome to fill out a pew card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher. Please let an usher know if you are unable to come to the railing for Communion and the clergy will come to you.

Are you looking for a church home? You are welcome to fill out a pew card and place it in the offering plate. On it you can indicate that you would like the clergy to call on you.

Out of respect for neighbors wishing for quiet time to pray before the liturgy begins, please refrain from LOUD talking in the nave.

Flower Memorials - Flowers are given today in loving memory of Joseph and Betty Gallagher, by the Gallagher Family; and in loving memory of Leslie Dempsey, by Earl Dempsey and Family; and in loving memory of Kara Barnard, by the Barnard Family.

The October newsletter is available at the back of church.

Meetings: Sunday 10:45 AM Outreach, Thursday 7:30 PM Adult Choir Rehearsal

Reminder the next Outreach Meeting is today, October 22nd after the 10:00 AM Service in Musselman Hall.

There is no youth group on Sunday because of the Pumpkin Patch & Festival. Join us again Sunday October 29th for Becoming a Family.

Please join us next Sunday for the Bishop's visit. The Rt. Rev. Rodney Michel will be with us to preach, celebrate, and confirm at the 10 AM service.

Thank you everyone who helped unload the pumpkins for the Pumpkin Patch and thank you to all of the people who continue to volunteer to run the table for the daily sales. Also, please check out the article in the Daily Times on 10/19/17 which features Christ Church and the Pumpkin Patch. Thank you to Dave Smith for all of your time and effort organizing this event.

A special Thank you to all who set up, volunteered their time and donated items for the White Elephant Sale.

Calling All Young Adults & “Young” Adults Join our new Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministry, John Weicher, next Sunday (10/29) to meet, greet and discuss Young Adult Ministry at Christ Church. (Theology on Tap, anyone?) Whether you barely consider yourself an adult or are holding on tightly to that word, “young,” you’re invited. We’ll meet at 9:00 AM in Father Doug’s office. RSVPs to John (youth@christchurchridleypark.org) are encouraged but not required.

If you would like a loved one memorialized with Altar flowers, please contact Janice Kordowski at 610-731-5252 for information.

It takes a Village... This year our Christmas Windows in the church will have a village theme. We are looking for as many different kinds as possible, but every village will need to have a church. If you have a collection of houses that would work as a window display, we’d love to see them, and to borrow them if we agree they will work as planned for the overall effect. You are welcome to do your own window if you would like, once your village has been okayed. Please contact Ruth Pottier for more details (610) 361-8180

Seamen’s Ditty bag collection for October- The Outreach Committee is in the final stretch for the collection of items for the ditty bags for the Seamen’s Institute. To complete our collection we need 8 nail clippers, 13 letter writing tablets (approximately 5 ½ x 8 ½), and 1 shaving cream. Donations should be left in the purple bin marked Seamen’s Institute, which is under the shelf near the green doors. Thank you for your generosity during this collection! These are the last items we need and we will update this list weekly.

Your prayers and generosity are invited for the victims of the recent disasters. The devastation is heartbreaking. Please consider making a gift through Episcopal Relief and Development. The link is: <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-you-can-do/give/donate-now/individual-donation>

Adult and Youth Choir - Please contact Janet Kaido in person or at janetskeyboard@gmail.com if you would like to participate in either group.

Junior Lay Readers Wanted: We would love to have more Junior Lay Readers, ages 7-17. Those interested should be fluid readers who are comfortable with an audience. Junior lay readers read the second lesson in the 10:00 service on Sundays from September-May. Being a junior lay reader is a wonderful way to serve! Please speak to Judy Buck-Glenn if your child is interested.

Need Lay Eucharistic Ministers (LEMs) to Visit Parish Shut-Ins - Our Lay Eucharistic Ministers visit as many of our parish shut-ins on a monthly basis as we can. If you're able to join this ministry and visit someone even once or twice a month, it would be a great help in assuring that our fellow parishioners who can no longer attend church are able to receive Holy Communion on a regular basis. Anyone wishing to become a Lay Eucharistic Minister is asked to contact Jan Iannacci (267-784-3997). Thank you.

Directory: We are online and the Directory is available in the back of the Church. If you need more than one, please leave a $2 donation in the envelope on the font.

Christ Church Savings Cards: They cost $20 each and give you discounts at a dozen local businesses. See Maripat King or Joanne Daws, or stop by the office.

Life Center Update- Our next date to serve is Wednesday, February 14th, 2018. We are planning to serve hearty chili, so if you have a recipe you'd like to share, please do so! With much appreciation and gratitude, The Outreach Committee.

Cradles To Crayons Update: Please continue to place your new and gently used children's books and clothing- sizes infant to children's 14 in the bin upstairs. The Most Needed Item list has been updated on the bin. As always, thank you for your generosity. The Outreach Committee Gift Baskets for November Christmas Fair - The Christmas Fair will be upon us before you know it, and it is never too early to begin thinking about putting together a themed basket. If you give yourself a longer lead time, you can really plan something spectacular. Think of a theme and watch sales for items that will go with that theme— “At the Beach”; “Chocaholic”; “Kitchen Queen”; “Sledding Party”; “Baby’s First Christmas”—the possibilities are only limited by your imagination. We do ask that you please use new items only to fill the baskets, though those need not be brand new as long as they are as good as new. We have baskets on hand if you need one.

We have a gluten-free option for Communion. If you require this, please give your name and contact information to the office. We need advance notice of your need.

On your travels, whether near or far, please bring back your unused hotel toiletries (soap, shampoo, creams, deodorant, toothbrush, dental floss, etc...) and donate them for a good cause. There is a bin by the green doors for your donations to the homeless. Every year on Martin Luther King, Jr. Volunteer Day we will distribute to the Salvation Army in Chester. We create bags to give to the homeless from all of the samples that get donated. Thank you, your help is appreciated.

Clara and Mac-Mac need your help! The children of the Sunday School support two children through ChildFund. Clara is from Guatemala and Mac-Mac lives in the Philippines. The money to support these children comes from the Sunday School collection, children's mite boxes, and our Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper, as well as the Children's Pew envelopes. Some concerned parishioners also donate. Their support costs $1200 a year. Parents, it would help if you could send your child to Sunday School with money for the collection, or have them put it in a CHILDREN'S pew envelope in church. Adults can also make a donation in a CHILDREN'S pew envelope, or you can write a check to the church and put "ChildFund" in the memo. Clara and Mac-Mac thank you.

The Youth Need Your Donations! Are you decluttering or downsizing? Please remember the Youth Group as you are sorting and setting items aside. We need new or good as new items for the Youth Booth in the Deppich Room.

Do you need a Christening gift or a gift for a godchild – or any child? The Youth Group is selling copies of The Toddler's Bible and The Children's Bible, on the table in the Deppich Room. All Proceeds benefit the Pilgrimage Fund.

Would you like to establish a fund for Christ Church through your estate planning? Your restricted gift will ensure the continuation of the ministry of Christ Church and will benefit your parish friends and family for generations to come. Please speak to the rector if you would like assistance in establishing such a fund.

A Note on Today's Readings

Proper 24: Sunday closest to October 19—Year A

As we draw near the end of Matthew's Gospel, the opposition to Jesus intensifies. Today the Pharisees seek to entrap Jesus, asking if it is lawful to pay taxes to the emperor. The trap would be to offend either zealous Jewish patriots or else offend the ruling class in Jerusalem including the Romans. Jesus' answer points instead to Jewish teaching that the government, even a pagan one, has legitimate authority, but that authority cannot be allowed to interfere with our duty toward God.

In our ongoing story of the Exodus, it is time for the Jews to move on in their journey to the land of promise. Moses asks for a sign of God's favor. God gives two signs. One is his promise to go with the people on their journey to the Promised Land and the other is to give Moses a glimpse of God.

The second reading today begins several weeks of reading Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians. This is probably the earliest of Paul's letters. Things have gone well since he left and he begins by giving thanks for their faithfulness. This church, however, had some problems and confusion about the second coming of Christ. In coming weeks we will hear Paul's teaching about that.

Central to every gathering of Christians for worship is intercessory prayer. Our prayer is always for the church and the world. A striking illustration was that the early Christians prayed for the emperor who was persecuting them. Our faith calls us to pray for and to minister to all aspects of life. The liturgy reminds us that God is concerned for all creation and is the Savior of all.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 33:12-23

All sit.

A Reading from the book of Exodus.

Moses said to the Lord, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people." He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth." The Lord said to Moses, "I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." Moses said, "Show me your glory, I pray." And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, 'The Lord'; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But," he said, "you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live." And the Lord continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Psalm 99

Dominus regnavit

- 1 The LORD is King;
let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.
- 2 The LORD is great in Zion; *
he is high above all peoples.
- 3 Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *
he is the Holy One.
- 4 “O mighty King, lover of justice,
you have established equity; *
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.”
- 5 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God
and fall down before his footstool; *
he is the Holy One.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.
- 7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.
- 8 “O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; *
you were a God who forgave them,
yet punished them for their evil deeds.”
- 9 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God
and worship him upon his holy hill; *
for the LORD our God is the Holy One.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

A Reading from Paul's First letter to the Church in Thessalonika.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace. We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:15-22

All stand.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Sermon

The Rev. Douglas Tompkins

Nicene Creed

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

All remain standing.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Here names of those serving in the military and first responders are remembered

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Here the names of those on the parish prayer list are remembered

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Here the names of the departed are remembered

Silence

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask, help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

All kneel.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Minister and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts, to the deacon or celebrant. The people stand while the offerings are presented and placed on the Altar.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow / praise him, all creatures here below / praise him above, ye heavenly host / praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Alleluia. Christ our passover is sacrificed for us

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

All baptized persons, whatever your denominational affiliation, are welcome to receive Holy Communion at our altar. You may stand at the altar rail if your knees do not permit kneeling. Please assist the chalice bearer by gently holding the base of the chalice. Please do not hold the top of the chalice. If you wish, you may intinct (dip) the host (consecrated bread) in the chalice. If you do not wish to receive the wine, fold your arms over your chest. Baptized children may receive with parent's permission, otherwise they will receive a blessing.

Communion Anthem: Thee We Adore - T. Frederick H. Candlyn

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

The priest blesses the people, saying

The Wisdom, the Love, and the Grace of God strengthen you to be Christ's hands and heart in this world, and the blessing of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be with you now and evermore. Amen.
